South opens 1 ♠. West overcalls 2 ♦. After West's 2 ♦ overcall both South and North know that the 2/1 Game Force is no longer on. North can therefore bid 2 ♥, showing at least 11 points. This bid is forcing on South for 1 round, but not forcing to game. South next rebids his ♠s, promising a 6-card suit, but also indicating a minimum strength hand. Since the Game Force is not on, South would have to make a jump bid to show extra strength.

You have nothing further to say so the partnership arrives in a safe contract.

South opens 1 ♠. So far you know you belong in game, but you don't know which game. What do you bid first? You respond 2 ♣, natural and forcing the partnership to game. South now bids his ♥ suit. At this point you figure South for 5 ♠s and 4 ♥s. What should you rebid? You cannot support either of South's Majors, but with a good stopper in the fourth suit you bid 2NT. The game force is still on and South may not pass this bid. South bids 3 ♥, indicating that this is also a 5-card suit. What do you rebid now?

Now you can bid the ♥ game, knowing there is an 8-card fit.
