hand. But your partner has one ♥ at the most so there is no hope of establishment.

Now that you have looked at the hands aren't you glad you didn't cover?

[showcards N:HJ]

You are West. The bidding has been as shown.

Partner led the ♣K, and you played the ♣9 to encourage him. He continued with the ♣Q, then a small card to your ♣A. You then exit with the ♦10, taken by dummy's ♦K.

Declarer then calls for the ♥J. Do you cover with your ♥Q or not?

Play the ♥4.

South has 5 ♥s and North must have at least 5. The reason you cover an Honor is that you hope to establish a lower card in either your hand or partner's toward his ♠Q, playing North for the ♠K. If he plays this way you will get two tricks and defeat the contract.

[showcards S:S4]

You are South. The bidding has been as shown.

You lead the ♥J, covered by dummy's ♥Q and won by North's ♥K. North wins the ♥A at the second trick and continues with a small ♥ ruffed by East.

East then plays the ♠4 from his hand. Do you play low? or play the ♠J to force dummy's ♠A?

Play the ♠3.

If East decides to finesse the ♠10 then you will still win the one ♠ trick which you are entitled to win.

However, with East holding the ♠Q it would be very logical for him to go up with the ♠A then lead back toward his ♠Q, playing North for the ♠K. If he plays this way you will get two tricks and defeat the contract.
