When NORTH opens 1NT, point-count alone tells SOUTH that 6NT can surely be made. NORTH is bound to hold at least two Aces. But SOUTH doesn't want to miss a Grand slam.

SOUTH bids 4♣, (Gerber), and NORTH admits to just two Aces.

So SOUTH settles for the small slam.

EAST has a powerhouse and knows she will reach a slam somewhere. When WEST supports the ♠s, it seems she has found her spot.

Blackwood tells her that WEST has two Aces. She can see there are 12 tricks available and decides to take a chance that WEST will have a thirteenth trick somewhere among his opening hand points.

She bids 7NT.
