NORTH has a powerful hand (21 points) with a good 6-card suit. He opens 1♠.

SOUTH has an 11-point Limit Raise with four trumps. She jumps to 3♠.

NORTH now knows that the partnership holds at least 32 points, perhaps 33. Since he can see that the opponents have no way to win the first two tricks he decides to bid the slam, 6♠

EAST has 14 points and opens 1 ♠, her 5-card Major.

WEST could bid 3 ♠, a Limit Raise with his 11 points. But it is often a good idea, when you have five of the Major suit that partner opened with, to just go ahead and bid the game. So West should bid 4 ♠ here.

See the NOTE in Deal 13. When you use weaker 5-card support hands for your jump to game, you need to find another way to describe your opening-hand-strength type hands.
