You open in third seat and the bidding continues as shown.

Partner has a limit raise in ♠s and wonders if you have a full strength opening bid. Your 15 point hand is enough to insist on game, but opposite a passed hand you have no interest in a slam.

So you sign-off at 4 ♠.

With 11 points in support of ♠s you need to let partner know. The way to do it is to bid 2♣.

Partner rebids 2♦, confirming a full-strength opening bid.

You've told partner you had at least a limit raise, now you need to tell him that it is pretty minimal. You bid 2♠ and everybody passes.

You open in third seat and the bidding continues as shown.

If you thought South had 11 points you'd bid 4♠.
But you know he has a weak hand - with 10+ points and support he would have said 2♣.

His 3♠ bid is just preemptive, so you pass.
