SOUTH has 13 points but has no bid over 1 ♦.

NORTH can make a Takeout Double, so he does.

SOUTH now cue-bids ♦ to show opening hand strength.

NORTH shows his ♥ suit, SOUTH doesn't like it.

SOUTH shows her ♠ suit, NORTH doesn't like it.

NORTH shows his ♣ suit, SOUTH likes it fine, but decides 3NT will be easier than 5♣.

WEST would have had a great opening 1♠ bid. But when SOUTH opened 1♠ in front of him he was hornswaggled. He couldn't bid any other suit, he couldn't bid 1NT and he sure couldn't bid ♠s. So he must pass.

And so does everybody else pass.

If East had passed, SOUTH would have opened with a preemptive 3♠.

She should make the same bid with the same hand AFTER the opponents open. And she makes it for the same reason, to describe her hand and to take away bidding space from the opponents.

NORTH treats it just like a Preemptive 3-bid, even though it is now called a Weak Jump Overcall. In this case, NORTH passes.

SOUTH has 12 points, but with two 5-card suits worthy of an overcall. There isn't really a right and wrong here, but it usually works out best to overcall in the higher-ranking suit. That leaves open the possibility of bidding the second suit later.

In this Deal, after SOUTH overcalls 1♠, that later possibility never happens because everybody should pass.
