NORTH jumps in ♥s, showing a good suit and slam interest.

SOUTH has great ♥ support so bids RKCB 4NT.

NORTH responds 5♠, showing two Key Cards and the ♥Q.

That is enough for SOUTH to bid the slam.

When WEST agrees to ♠s, EAST will not stop short of a slam. The RKCB 4NT bid tells EAST that they have all five Key Cards since WEST could hardly have a 2♣ opening hand with no Aces.

EAST's 5♥ bid is the Queen Ask, and WEST's reply confirms that she holds the ♠Q, and also has the ♣K.

EAST figures the ♠ suit will run, and this should be enough for Grand Slam. He chooses 7NT.

SOUTH knows there are enough points for slam, but she is worried about the trump suit. NORTH's support doesn't guarantee more than three ♠s, and if they are not headed by the Queen she could lose a trump trick.

Her RKCB bid relieves her mind when SOUTH claims two Key Cards PLUS the ♠Q. She bids 6♠ (and hopes for a 3-2 trump split!).
