Don't even think about bidding 1NT. You are way too weak for that. Don't even think about passing for penalties. Your ♦ are nowhere near good enough. Partner is forcing you to bid a suit, so you bid your best non-♦ suit, ♥s. Partner now jumps to 2 ♠.

You say pass. Despite partner showing you a big hand you just can't help him.

The bidding has been as shown.

Partner told you to bid, so you say 2 ♣. North repeats his suit and partner then says 2 ♠.

By doubling and then bidding his own suit, partner is showing a good hand, at least 17 points. Your hand can be revalued to about 7 points so you are good enough to invite partner to game. You bid 3 ♠ and partner says 4 ♠.

The bidding has been as shown.

Now that East has stolen your response you aren't strong enough to make a free-bid at the 2-level. You pass, West bids 2 ♦ and partner doubles again. Now what?

This is not a penalty double, partner is merely repeating his request for you to name a suit. But now he expects you to choose between ♥s and ♣s.

You bid 3 ♣ and everybody passes.

You may be one too high, but that still might be a good score if they can make 2 ♦.
