get to your hand.

[showcards W:DA N:D2]

You are West. The bidding has been as shown. East led the ♦ A, dummy played the ♦ 2

Play the ♦ Q.

As soon as dummy appears you can see 3 tricks for your side. Partner surely has the ♦ K to go with his Ace and you have a certain trump trick. However, that's all you can see.

Your best hope is that East may be able to win a ♠ trick, and it may be important for the first ♠ lead to come from your side of the table.

Your ♦ Q play informs partner that you also have the ♦ J, giving him the option of underleading his ♦ K to East next plays a small ♦ which you win with your ♦ J. You return the ♠ 10. This establishes East's ♠ K before North can pull trumps and discard one of dummy's ♠ s on his fourth ♣.

you had to do was toss a small red card?

[showcards S:CT]

You are South. The bidding has been as shown. You led the ♠5, North plays the ♠10 and East wins the ♠K. To the second trick East plays the ♣10 and you must discard something.

Play the ♠J.

You know that North has no high ♠ honor or he would have played it to the first trick. So East has the ♠A Q left, plus all those ♣ tricks. You need to have South switch to a ♥ if possible.

North must be expecting to lead a ♠ back when he wins the ♣Q which you hope he holds. Your ♠J discard may make him rethink. If your ♠s were any good why would you be discarding a winner when all Hopefully North will come to the conclusion that this is Suit Preference for a ♥ return and will play his ♥J. Hopefully.

get it. South will discard his ♣K on North's extra ♦ winner.

[showcards W:SK N:S9]

You are East. The bidding has been as shown.

Partner led the ♠A, dummy played the ♠2 and you signal with your ♠10. West next plays the ♠Q and you drop the ♠4, completing your doubleton signal. West then plays the ♠K and it turns out you don't have to ruff after all. So what are you going to play?

Play the ♣9.

This should be a clear enough signal for West to play a ♣ to your ♣A next.

An alternate play, just as good, would be for you to ruff the good ♠Q and play the ♣A yourself.

If you don't get your ♣ trick at trick 4 you will never
