With two 4-card Majors SOUTH should respond
"up-the-line", bidding ♥s first.

Then, after NORTH bids 1♠, SOUTH has enough points to jump all the way to 4♠.

EAST has 17 points and might open 1NT. But with the 5-card Major suit she prefers to open 1 ♠.

WEST has excellent ♠ support but with 11 points is not quite strong enough to insist on reaching game. Instead he makes an invitational jump to 3 ♠, which EAST is strong enough to raise to game.

SOUTH has a powerful hand, but 21 points is not strong enough to start with a forcing 2♣ bid. Since he has balanced distribution he opens 2NT (20-21 points).

NORTH adds her 6 points to SOUTH's minimum and concludes they should be in game. She expects her good ♦ suit to be useful to NORTH in Notrump so she bids 3NT.

EAST has a solid 1♥ opening, 14 points and five trumps.

WEST must respond with 8 points, but cannot bid either minor suit since he needs at least 11 points to bid a new suit at the 2-level. So he bids 1NT (6-10 points).

EAST doesn't object to Notrump so she passes.

NORTH has a normal 1♠ opening bid, 14 points and five trumps.

SOUTH has good 4-card support and 7 points, so she raises to 2♠, passed by NORTH.

SOUTH does not consider showing the ♥s, first because she knows there is a ♠ fit, and second because she doesn't have the 11 points needed to bid a new suit at the 2-level.
