

Jacoby Two Notrump

A 2NT response to a Major suit opening promises at least 4-card support and at least opening hand strength. It is absolutely forcing to game.

Opener's second bid describes her hand further:

- 4 of the Major shows a minimum featureless hand

- 3NT shows extra strength and a 5-card trump suit

- 3 of the Major shows extra strength and a 6+ card trump suit

- 3 of any other suit shows shortness (singleton or void)

- 4 of any other suit shows a second 5-card suit

Splinter Bids

A double-jump-shift as a response to partner's opening 1 of a Major suit is a Splinter bid. It shows opening hand strength, at least four card support for the Major, and a singleton or void in the "splintered" suit. It is absolutely forcing to game.

BakerBridge has complete lessons for these conventions.

NORTH bids 3♠ to show a strong hand with a singleton ♠.

After SOUTH shows her first-round ♣ control NORTH decides he will bid slam if SOUTH has three Aces.

When Blackwood reveals just two Aces in SOUTH, NORTH stops at 5♥.

EAST bids 4♣ after WEST's Jacoby 2NT. The reason for this bid is just to describe her hand as having a side 5-card ♣ suit. EAST knows the eventual contract will be some level of ♥s.

WEST doesn't have a strong hand, but he would show ♦ control at this time if he had the Ace. He isn't strong enough to go past game to show the ♠ A, so he just bids 4♥.

NORTH should not be tempted to use Jacoby 2NT with this hand. There are only 12 points, and the Limit Raise is a perfect way to show a 12 point support hand.

SOUTH has more than enough strength to bid game after NORTH's limit raise. If NORTH had mistakenly used a Jacoby 2NT response, SOUTH would probably have tried to reach slam, and perhaps gotten too high.

WEST bids 3NT to show a good hand with five ♠s.

EAST shows his ♦ control, and WEST then shows her ♥ control.

A final check with Blackwood shows two Aces missing. Too bad.

NORTH shows his 6-card ♠ suit by bidding 3♠.

SOUTH shows her ♣ control and NORTH shows his ♥ control, but it seems neither has a control in ♦s.

So they stop in game.
