After North's 1♥ opening South counts 12 HCP plus one length point for the fifth ♦. That is enough for a 2/1 response so South says 2♦. The partnership is now forced to reach game so North bids 2NT. This describes a balanced hand with exactly 5 ♥s and no 4-card ♠ suit. What should you bid now? South is happy to play in Notrump, and with no extra strength above the 13 points already promised, uses Quick Arrival and bids 3NT. North passes and a reasonable game contract is reached. Notice that you would bid this hand the same way whether or not you play 2/1.

South opens 1♥. With 16 points, you respond 2♦, forcing the partnership to game. South rebids 2♥. In our style of 2/1 this promises a 6th heart. What do you rebid now?

Opposite South's 6-card suit, your doubleton is adequate support. If you had a minimum for your 2/1 response you might just jump to 4♥ to show no interest in slam. With a little extra you bid 3♥ since she knows the bidding cannot stop until game is reached. From your perspective South might have a big hand; his 2-level rebid shows suit length but does not say anything about strength. This is one of the beauties of 2/1, the bidding can be kept low while you look for the best place to play. However, this time South merely bids the game and you pass. The hand is harder to bid in standard bidding - you couldn't bid 3♥ to show slam interest.

How do you respond with this nice hand? With 16+ points and 3 ♥s, you will insist on a ♥ game at a minimum. But there is no need to start making jump bids, so start with a simple 2 ♦ bid. This is natural and game forcing. North rebids 2 ♥ to show a 6-card suit. What do you rebid now? Now you say 3 ♥ to set the trump suit, and show slam interest. At this point North also shows slam interest, making a control-showing bid of 4 ♣. Do you cooperate? Yes, you have an easy, 4 ♦ bid, showing the ♦ A. North has heard enough. He bids 4NT, a keycard request using 1430.

When partner hears about your two keycards without the trump queen, he bids the slam.

This bid is forcing on South for 1 round, but not forcing to game. South next rebids his ♠s, promising a 6-card suit, but also indicating a minimum strength hand. Since the Game Force is not on, South would have to make a jump bid to show extra strength.

You have nothing further to say so the partnership arrives in a safe contract.

At this point you figure North for 5 ♠s and 4 ♥s. What should you rebid? You cannot support either of North's Majors, but with a good stopper in the fourth suit you bid 2NT. The game force is still on and North may not pass this bid. North bids 3 ♥, indicating that this is also a 5-card suit. What do you rebid now?

South went straight to game, showing a minimum opener and no slam interest. You are also satisfied to just play at game. 2/1 is a good bidding method, and here, 4 ♥ is a good contract. But you can see that it is not a laydown - there is no bidding system that will always reach 100% contracts. In this hand a 3-3 ♦ split will provide the 10th trick, or if that fails, taking 2 ♠ finesses provides a 75% chance of success.

This shows at least 4 hearts. What do you rebid now? Your 3 ♥ bid confirms hearts as trump. There's no worry partner might pass - we are in a game forcing auction. North raises to 4 ♥, showing no slam interest.

We don't have enough for slam opposite a minimum opener, so we just pass. Note North's decision to show the poor 4-card heart suit for their second bid, instead of showing the 6th spade. But after a 2/1 GF response, South doesn't need extra values to show their 4-card spade suit. What should you rebid? You assume South to be 4-5 in the Majors, and since you can't support either one, you bid 2NT. If South actually has 6♥s (or 5♠s) he would rebid the suit. Your 2NT bid guarantees a stopper in the fourth suit.

South does not have either 6♥s or 5♠s so he just bids 3NT. Notice that South never once considered the possibility of passing what might be a misfit - the initial 2/1 response unconditionally forced the partnership to reach a game somewhere.

You assume North to be 5-4 in the Majors, so you cannot support either. You cannot bid 2NT without a stopper in ♦ s. So you bid the fourth suit, 3 ♦, telling North you know you must make a bid, but can't find anything appropriate. This is an artificial bid, and normally denies a diamond stopper (otherwise you would have bid 2NT). North rebids 3NT - what do you do now?

North now must find a bid. His choices include rebidding the 5-card ♠ s, supporting South's ♣ s with a doubleton Queen, or bidding 3NT with the ♦ K 6 as a stopper. He chooses this last option. It appears that 3NT is the best game for these two hands.

Partner bids 4NT, a keycard request using 1430.

You bid 5 ♠, showing two keycards and the trump queen. Partner bids the slam. The slam is a good one. If either the ♠Q or ♣K is right there are 12 tricks by way of a finesse. But the best way to play the hand would be to try to establish a ♠ in the North hand, and if that fails try the ♣ finesse.

North opens 1♠. What do you respond with? You have a powerhouse, plenty strong enough to jump-shift. But playing 2/1 it's usually simpler when you make the 2/1 response, and save your jumping for later - if at all. So just bid 2♥, knowing North must keep the bidding open. North responds 3♥, setting the trump suit. Now you are definitely interested in slam. Since you have controls in all the side suits, you go right to keycard Blackwood, using the 1430 system. Partner responds 5♥.

Partner's 5♥ shows two keycards without the trump queen. But we have the other 3 keycards, and the trump queen. If partner has the two minor kings we might have a grand. We ask about these with our 5NT bid. Unfortunately, partner responds 6♥ (playing specific kings, this denies any kings lower than hearts). We will pass and play there. This is a good slam, cold if West makes any opening lead other than a ♣. With a ♣ lead, South will have to pull trumps and play to discard a loser on the ♠10.

South would have shown one Ace and North wouldn't know what to do next. She might have figured the odds favored that one Ace being a red one and tried the slam. Moral: Don't use Blackwood when you have a void.

You have a great hand - how will you start the bidding? You open 1 ♠. South responds 2 ♦, a 2/1 force to game. You have a big hand, perhaps in the slam range, but first priority is to set a trump suit. So you contend yourself with a rebid of 2 ♠. South agrees on trumps by bidding 3 ♠ (not Fast Arrival). South's next bid would be a control-showing bid of her own - IF SHE HAD ONE. Since she cannot win the first or second round of either red suit she just returns to 4 ♠. North realizes that they are off two red Aces and passes. Notice that North did not fall into the Blackwood trap. If you HAD asked for Aces,

North opens 1♠. You respond 2♦, a 2/1 force to game. Partner rebids 2♥, showing a 4-card side suit.

You don't have 4♥s, nor do you have 3♠s. You do, however, have stoppers in ♣s so you bid 2NT. North happily says 3NT.

South opens 1 ♠. How do you respond? You bid 2 ♦, a 2/1 force to game. South rebids 2 ♥, showing a 4-card heart suit.

You don't have 4 ♥s, nor do you have 3 ♠s.

Furthermore, you don't have stoppers in ♣s so you cannot bid NT. Since you have to keep bidding, but have no reasonable bid you can make, you bid the fourth suit, 3 ♣.

Compare this Deal with Deal 21.

South understands that North's ♣ bid is Fourth-Suit-Forcing, and does not actually show ♣s. However since South does have a ♣ stopper he bids 3NT. In this case this turns out to be the best game contract.

North passes - what should you open? North now bids 2 ♦. Since North originally passed this is NOT 2/1 Game Force. Instead, it is non-forcing and shows 11 or more points. You should show your 4-card ♥ suit. North gives a preference to 2 ♠. What do you do now?

Knowing that North does not have opening strength you pass 2 ♠.

South opens 1♠. With 9 points and a doubleton ♠ you must respond 1NT. Partner rebids 2♣.

North prefers ♣ over ♠ but must allow for the possibility that South has bid a 3-card suit. So North gives a preference to 2♠. This is called a "false preference", but it assures the team of being in at least a 7-card fit. South happily passes and the pair lands in a reasonable contract, probably better than 1NT.

How do you start the bidding? You opens 1 ♠.

Partner bids 2 ♥. Your priority on your first rebid is to agree trumps if possible. Knowing North has at least a 5-card suit, you raise to 3 ♥. You are in a Game Forcing auction, so you know partner will continue bidding. North now bids 4 ♣. North's 4 ♣ bid shows first or second round control in clubs, and shows slam interest. You cooperate by bidding your next control up suit order - 4 ♦. This doesn't promise extra values, it's just following partner's path. North asks for keycards using 1430. What is your reply? You show two keycards without the trump queen. Partner is excited about this and bids 5NT - what's your bid now? Partner's 5NT is asking for specific kings. Since we don't have any kings lower than the trump suit, we have to bid 6 ♥. and gets two. He decides to find out about Kings, if South happens to have three he will bid 7NT. When South shows just one North settles for 6 ♥. This should be a good slam, needing only a decent ♠ break.

South opens 1♠. With 11 points you cannot respond 2♣. So you bid 1NT, which is forcing for 1 round. South rebids 2♠, promising at least 6 ♠s and denying a 4-card side suit.

You are strong enough to invite to game, and with the known 8-card fit you say 3♠. South has a little extra so he bids 4♠, which is a pretty good contract.

North opens 1♠. Perhaps a little marginal, but you don't pass 13 point hands. You have a good 2/1 response of 2♣. North rebids 4♥, showing a 4-card second suit. You wouldn't dare support ♥s with only three cards, but you have a good 2NT bid. North is not happy in notrump so rebids the 6-card major, 3♠. What do you do now?

Your two ♠s are enough support so you bid the ♠ game.

How do you start the bidding on this hand? You open 1 ♠. Partner responds 1NT, forcing for one round. What do you rebid? You rebid 2 ♣, a 3-card suit. South now jumps to 3 ♠, showing limit-raise strength. This sequence is the way to show a limit-raise with only 3 trumps; an immediate jump-raise to the 3-level shows a limit-raise with 4 trumps.

In any case you have a bare minimum and pass the invitation.
