SOUTH's jump to 4♣ is a Splinter bid, at least 4-card

support,

at least opening hand, and a ♣ Singleton or Void.

NORTH bids 4NT, Blackwood.

SOUTH's 5NT reply shows two Aces and a Void somewhere, obviously ♣s.

NORTH counts thirteen tricks and bids 7

EAST figures that if WEST holds two Aces he will bid the slam.

WEST only has one Ace, but she has something else just as good - a void in a suit which is higher-ranking than

s.

EAST manages to figure out that WEST has a ♠ void and bids the slam anyway.

SOUTH may have a good hand but NORTH merely gave a simple raise.

Even if NORTH has a maximum there won't be a slam.

, hoping that he can at least make that and that 7 isn't a laydown!

Baker Bidpractice/Set7 12

WEST has a tough decision after the two Control-showing bids.

If he uses Blackwood and EAST shows two Aces he will be no better off, because he won't know if one of the Aces is the useless ♠A. Based on knowing that EAST holds the

he bids 6
